If players are tied for 1st, 2nd, or 3rd, then randomly place them in the playoff bracket in the order in which they were assigned their numbers (or any other method to randomly place them. If 2 players are tied for only 4th, then have the players spin for serve and they will play out 1 no-ad game to reach the playoffs. If more than 2 players are tied for only 4th, place them in the tiebreaker rounds bracket (on score sheet), and have them spin for serve and play out no-ad games until the 4th qualifier is found. If the 3rd, 4th, and 5th totals are tied, one of the players will be randomly placed as the 3rd seed, and the other 2 will be placed in the tiebreaker rounds bracket to play for the 4th seed. If the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th totals are tied, then 2 players would be drawn into the playoffs and the others would go to the tiebreaker rounds. If 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, and 5th are tied, then 3 players would be drawn in to the playoffs and the others would go to the tiebreaker rounds. If the 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th (and so on) totals are tied, the 3rd seed is randomly drawn. Everyone else will be placed in a tiebreaker rounds bracket. If the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th (and so on) totals are tied, the 2nd and 3rd seeds are randomly drawn. Everyone else will be placed in a tiebreaker rounds bracket. If the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th (and so on) totals are tied, the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd seeds are randomly drawn and placed in playoff bracket. Everyone else will be placed in a tiebreaker rounds bracket. In all cases applicable, the winner of the tiebreaker rounds bracket is the #4 seed in the playoffs.
